Summer is almost here (finally, right?)

The longer days, the smiling people, the fresh air and sunshine – it is impossible not to get inspired by this magnificent time of the year. And we did, creating this new summer 2017 catalog to complement everything you are planning to accomplish, while the weather is hot.

As you know Saint-Petersburg Global Trade House is a business with a long history. In more than 20 years we have formed a vibrant circle of creative people around us: talented artisans from Eastern Europe, vendors who provide many of the products we offer to you, our employees who work hard to ensure our customers are pleased with beautiful, high-quality products.

We make certain that all the items we offer are authentic and durable, and clothes are soft, light, and comfy – the kind of clothes I personally love wearing all summer long. Here you will find some of our favorite pieces.

Come along and discover our amazing summer collection.
